UNDER THE PUNKAH.

By J. PENN.

The Poor Man's Motor.

I have been on holiday this week—but not long leave, and no expenses paid, so I have had to be rather careful. A ferry season-ticket gives one quite a lot of ocean travelling at very little expense, and judicious expenditure upon motor-bus rides offers quite a variety of scenic beauty on land. The poor man's motor is not to be despised—nor is the assistance of an air-cushion for honey-parted people like myself.

One often hears the complaint that life in Hong Kong is dull; that there's nothing to do; that one can never get a thrill. Well, I've discovered an absolutely certain way of getting a thrill and at the same time a lot of cheap amusement. I give the tip gratis to local searchers after adventure—take a trip into the hinterland on a motor-bus.

I have occasion sometimes to visit an old friend who lives in the country, and not being a pukka newspaper-man with a car of my own, I have two ways of getting there—bus or walk, so I prefer to borrow the ten cents—no, fifteen since last month—and climb aboard the jolly old 'bus.

A Hectic Journey.

It's a curious fact that the journey outward seems always uneventful; it is the return trip that always gives one the "kick." Here's what happened to me yesterday. After frizzling at the terminus in the sweltering heat for about ten minutes waiting for the 'bus to arrive, I ultimately clambered up and in to find all the windows seemingly hermetically sealed. Then started a fierce struggle between myself and the "trick" windows, with a decisive win for the windows.

I got them down all right, but immediately I let go they jumped up with a jerk! By this time my best duck suit, named specially for the occasion, was reduced to a pulpy mass, and I turned for help to the driver or conductor, only to discover that they had gone to "yum cha" with the old woman who keeps a small shop, near by, and in which she purveys anything from "Pirates" to sucking-pigs.

After trying to explain what I wanted in what I considered my best Punt, Hakka, Hoklo and, finally, a mixture of emphatic English well laced with Army terms, and being answered on with knowing grins, I returned to the still palpating monster and renewed my struggle with those infernal windows. In the midst of this desperate encounter there was a terrific jerk, a roar of the engine and a screech from the mutilated rear, and on looking round dazedly I found the 'bus had started.

We Start.

Well, we were off, anyway! The windows are still tightly closed, but by fearful contortions of the face and body I at last make myself clear to the conductor, who produces some odds and ends of string and proceeds to tie the windows so that they remain open. So far so good, I now have time to regard my fellow suff—er—passengers.

An old crone is valiantly attempting to masticate with one tooth a black sticky substance which she feeds at intervals to a small boy in his birthday suit, perched on his mother's back. A very pleasant outing is being had by all. Further up the 'bus a half-naked coolie clears his throat in a most expert manner, catches my eye, and leans out of the window—Thank heaven for that bit of twine!

"Plenty Bobbery."

A violent jerk, a screech of the brakes, and we have stopped. Everyone looks out of the windows, and in another moment I am sitting alone in the 'bus—driver, conductor, and passengers have all alighted. There is tremendous shouting and "bobbery" outside. What has happened? Have we killed a chicken, a pig, perhaps an unfortunate pedestrian? I clamber out "all of a jelly," and find a crowd of villagers kicking and pummeling a poor wretch on the ground. One gentleman is using a huge bamboo pole with great effect, and I perceive my 'bus-driver getting in a fine right hook right below the belt.

This can't go on—British justice and fair-play—bulwark of Empire, and so on, so I call "Pax!" in ringing British tones. Out of the jumble of simultaneous explanations in various dialects, I realise that much-bellaboured person has stolen a jacket off a clothes-line, and in consequence is being "put through it." Again this can't go on. "Take him to the police station," says I. British justice demands it!

The thief by this time is on his knees at my feet, pitifully asking, as far as I could gather, for assistance. Does he get it? Do I hold off the yelling horde thirsting for his blood? Here is my chance to demonstrate our wonderful British sense of fair-play—but an imposing Sikh policeman appears on the scene and spoils the whole effect. In a moment he has grasped the situation in one hand and the wretched thief in the other, and marches him off. I think sometimes these policemen can be too efficient.

A scamper back to the 'bus, more screeching and gear-grinding, a jerk, and we're off again, this time with the mother and naked child in my lap, where they were dumped when our excellent driver threw in the clutch. A very pleasant time is still being had by all.

I help to deposit the white man's burden on the seat in front, to the accompaniment of delicious yells of merriment from the passengers, plus the conductor and driver who, in spite of having to negotiate a rather sharp bend in the road, is craning his neck round in order not to miss any of the fun! We are doing about 30 miles an hour, making up for lost time. On go the brakes again; we stop to admit another passenger, this time a very charming and beautifully-dressed Chinese flapper who, as the 'bus starts—again in the usual violent manner—composedly proceeds to powder a somewhat diminutive nose.

Flirting With a Flapper.

The conductor and driver now indulge in some mild repartee, with the flapper as the object thereof. She does not seem to mind, and ultimately joins in the jolly old conversation. Our rubber-necked driver now shows his versatility by rattling along at a good 25 and keeping up his end in the animated three-cornered discussion. When the girl tenders her fare, our gay Lothario refuses to accept it! Thank goodness, the days of chivalry are not dead.

On we go at full tilt through a crowded village, missing dogs, pigs, chickens and children by hair's-breadth, with practically no traffic, but to my surprise our driver does not step on the gas, and I discover that a Chinese factory is just emptying its hundreds of gill-workers into the street, and the 'bus crawls along to enable the driver to indulge in a little playful back-chat with some of his friends. A great life, 'bus-driving!

An inspector nimbly jumps on board without the 'bus slackening speed, inspects the tickets, stands talking to the man at the wheel for about a mile of the journey, and blithely hops off again.

Thrills Enough for Life.

We have now come to the most congested part of the route, but our driver merely accelerates—worthy servant of the company, he intends to keep to schedule, or perish in the attempt. From now on to the ferry, about a mile away, is one long thrill, but Providence must specially look after Chinese pedestrians and 'bus-drivers, for we actually arrive at our destination without mishap. Rather dazed but very thankful to be still alive to tell this tale, I make for the nearest mixologist's, where I revive under stimulants—and I needed them. Amy Johnson has nothing on me.

COOLIE CONDEMNED TO DEATH.

MURDERER OF MR. GODDARD TO DIE.

COOK IS ACQUITTED.

Sentence of death was passed on Pen Kyi, the Cantonese house coolie who confessed to the murder of Mr. C. S. Goddard on July 19, in the Special District Court Shanghai, last week by Judge Kuh, Shih Zung, Cantonese cook in the employ of the late Mr. Goddard, who was suspected of complicity in the crime, was found not guilty.

On the application of Mr. Paul Ryu, Assistant Municipal Advocate, the cook was ordered to be detained in custody for 10 days pending the decision of the police regarding an appeal against his acquittal.

The coolie, says the North China Daily News, who wore the same clothes as on the day he committed the murder, received the capital sentence in "silence." He made no statement when called upon to do so and appeared to be reconciled to his fate. The cook, who had grown a beard since his arrest, almost collapsed on hearing that the Court had cleared him of complicity in the murder.

Mr. Goddard was fatally wounded in the early hours of July 19 in his house at 530, North Szechuen Road, the motive being robbery. He had returned home about midnight and gone to bed. The coolie, according to his own statements, waited until he was asleep and then entered his bedroom with a specially-sharpened meat chopper. While he was searching for money in the drawer of a table, Mr. Goddard woke up and challenged him. The coolie struck him twice with the chopper, one blow almost severing his left arm and the other cutting the jugular vein. The coolie then fled but was arrested when the house was searched by the police who had been summoned by Mr. Aaron Fein, who lived opposite 530, North Szechuen Road. Mr. Goddard died in the General Hospital at 3.25 a.m. the same day from loss of blood. The coolie confessed to the murder and graphically described his preparations for it. He implicated the cook, who emphatically denied all knowledge of the crime.

AMERICAN DROUGHT AND FOREST FIRES.

OUTBREAK NEAR PRESIDENT HOOVER'S HOLIDAY CAMP.

[UNITED PRESS.]

Rapidan, August 10.—While President Hoover at his summer camp discussed the drought situation to-day with Mr. Arthur M. Hyde, Secretary of Agriculture, and other high officials with a view to formulating means of relief, fire fighters struggled to save a forest seven miles distant as flames threatened to "destroy the heat-dried trees."

A patrol of U.S. Marines and townsmen were fighting the fire with all resources at their disposal, and it was believed by night that the conflagration had been brought under control.

The Hoover home is not menaced at present.

Letters received by Government officials have revealed that 18,000 farmers in West Virginia are in a condition of virtual starvation. It is difficult to give them aid because the Federal Farm Board is not legally empowered to give money to purchase food for human beings although it can purchase food for cattle.

It is planned, however, to send the farmers ample food for their livestock and means for more direct relief will be devised as soon as possible.

Four Farm Homes Destroyed.

A forest fire along a 25-mile front in the Colville district is reported to have destroyed four farm homes. After the state Fire Warden had been notified and urged to help, no extra fire fighters were sent, it was disclosed to-day. State officials are investigating.

PACIFIC FLYERS IN TROUBLE.

CLOGGED GASOLINE LINE FORCES DOWN 'PLANE.

MACHINE UNDAMAGED.

[UNITED PRESS.]

Seattle, August 10.—Using a Fokker biplane, Robert Wark and Eddie Brown took off to-day at 11.29 a.m. local time on a four-stop flight to Tokyo.

It was originally the plan for Mr. Wark to race against Lieut. Harold Bromley from the west coast to Tokyo, but recently Lieut. Bromley decided that the trip was too hazardous for the non-stop flight he contemplated, unless he started from Tokyo and flew east.

Bromley is now in Japan preparing to take off in the opposite direction, getting the benefit of favouring winds which blow eastward across the Pacific.

Vancouver.—A clogged gasoline line forced down Robert Wark's Fokker biplane, Tokyo-bound, near here to-day.

Wark and his companion, Eddie Brown, were uninjured and the plane was not damaged. They said that they expect to resume their flight on Monday morning.

Assistance During Storms.

Seward, Alaska, August 10.—Preparations were made to-day to render assistance to the American Tokyo-bound flyers Robert Wark and Eddie Brown in the event that they encounter storms. It is expected that they will follow the coast-line.

Word from Tacoma stated to-day that the airmen plan to make four two-hour stops, the first at White Horse, the next at Fairbanks, the third at Nome and the last before Tokyo at Petropavlovsk. They expect to arrive in 60 hours, landing on a field at their destination.

Probably the same landing field will be utilized as the one from which Lieut. Harold Bromley intends to take off for America, it was stated.

Wark is piloting the aeroplane and he has on board 350 gallons of gasoline for the first stage of the flight. A large crowd was out for the take-off.

FAMILY LOST WHILE BATHING.

DANCED IN THE WATER.

FISHERMAN ON DANGER FROM CURRENTS.

A verdict of accidentally drowned while bathing was returned at the inquest at Robin Hood's Bay, near Whitby, on Rene Carmichael-Dick (29), of Leo Croft, Warwick Avenue, Great Sankey, Warrington, who, with her father and sister, was drowned. Her body was recovered two days later, but no trace has yet been found of the bodies of her father and sister.

Evidence of identification was given by Mr. Charles Everson Thorpe, with whom Mrs. Carmichael-Dick is staying. Renee, he said, was employed in a bank. The family were spending a fortnight's holiday at Robin Hood's Bay, and the father and daughters were in the habit of bathing every morning. The mother had told the witness that Renee was not a good swimmer, but that the father was. Miss Helen Mather, a Cub Scout mistress of the 113th Tenth Troop, Liverpool, said she had been bathing and saw the three bathers enter the water. After clapping hands and dancing round, they went into deeper water and commenced swimming. That was the last she saw of them. When she had finished dressing she left the place. She presumed they were all right. They would be about sixty yards from the shore when she last saw them.

Henry Duke, fisherman, who recovered the body at a spot named "Robin Hood's Bay," said from the place where they entered the water he gave his opinion that it was not a safe place to bathe owing to dangerous currents running off the land when the sea was rough. The bathers might have got their feet entangled in the seaweed. If anything happened at that spot they would soon be carried out to sea.

GERMAN POLITICS.

GEN. VON SEECKT A NOMINEE FOR REICHSTAG.

REAL ORGANIZER OF THE REICHSWEHR.

Berlin, August 9.—The former Commander-in-Chief of the Reichswehr, General Hans von Seeckt will, according to Press reports, enter the political arena and allow himself to be nominated as a candidate for the Reichstag by the German People's Party. General von Seeckt, who was for a long time credited with being one of Germany's ablest Generals as well as having great political acumen, retired several years ago owing to a disagreement with the then Minister of Defence, Dr. Gessler. For some time there was the report going around that Gen. von Seeckt desired to be appointed to a high diplomatic post in the Far East.

Born in 1866, from 1915 to 1917 chief-of-staff and the actual driving power behind Field Marshal von Mackensen, 1920 to 1926 Commander-in-Chief and the real organizer of the Reichswehr, Gen. von Seeckt is still hale and strong. His book "Thoughts of a Soldier" was widely commented on in Germany as well as abroad.

HOW TO GET RID OF INDIGESTION.

Those who suffer from indigestion, gastritis, acidity, flatulence, dyspepsia, heartburn, etc., will be glad to learn that instant relief can be obtained by taking half a teaspoonful of "Bisurated" Magnesia powder or two or three tablets in a little water immediately after eating or whenever pain is felt. This instantly neutralises the acid that causes all the trouble, stops the fermentation, heals and soothes the inflamed stomach lining, and restores painless, normal digestion. Get a package of "Bisurated" Magnesia of your chemist to-day; use as directed, and you will soon be telling your friends how you got rid of indigestion.

"How did it work?"
"Perfectly. The lion didn't even offer to touch me."
"Strange! How do you account for it?"

"Well, sometimes I've thought it was because I sat on the top branch of a very tall tree."

A farmer handed a rather fragile-looking box to a porter at a small railway station.

"Do you think this is strong enough to trust to the freight?" he asked.

"I doubt it," said the porter, "but we'll see."

He lifted the box high in the air and let it fall with a crash.

"It'll get that here," he said, "and it'll get that, giving it another bang, 'at the junction. At Springfield it'll get that, lifting it a bit higher as he spoke."

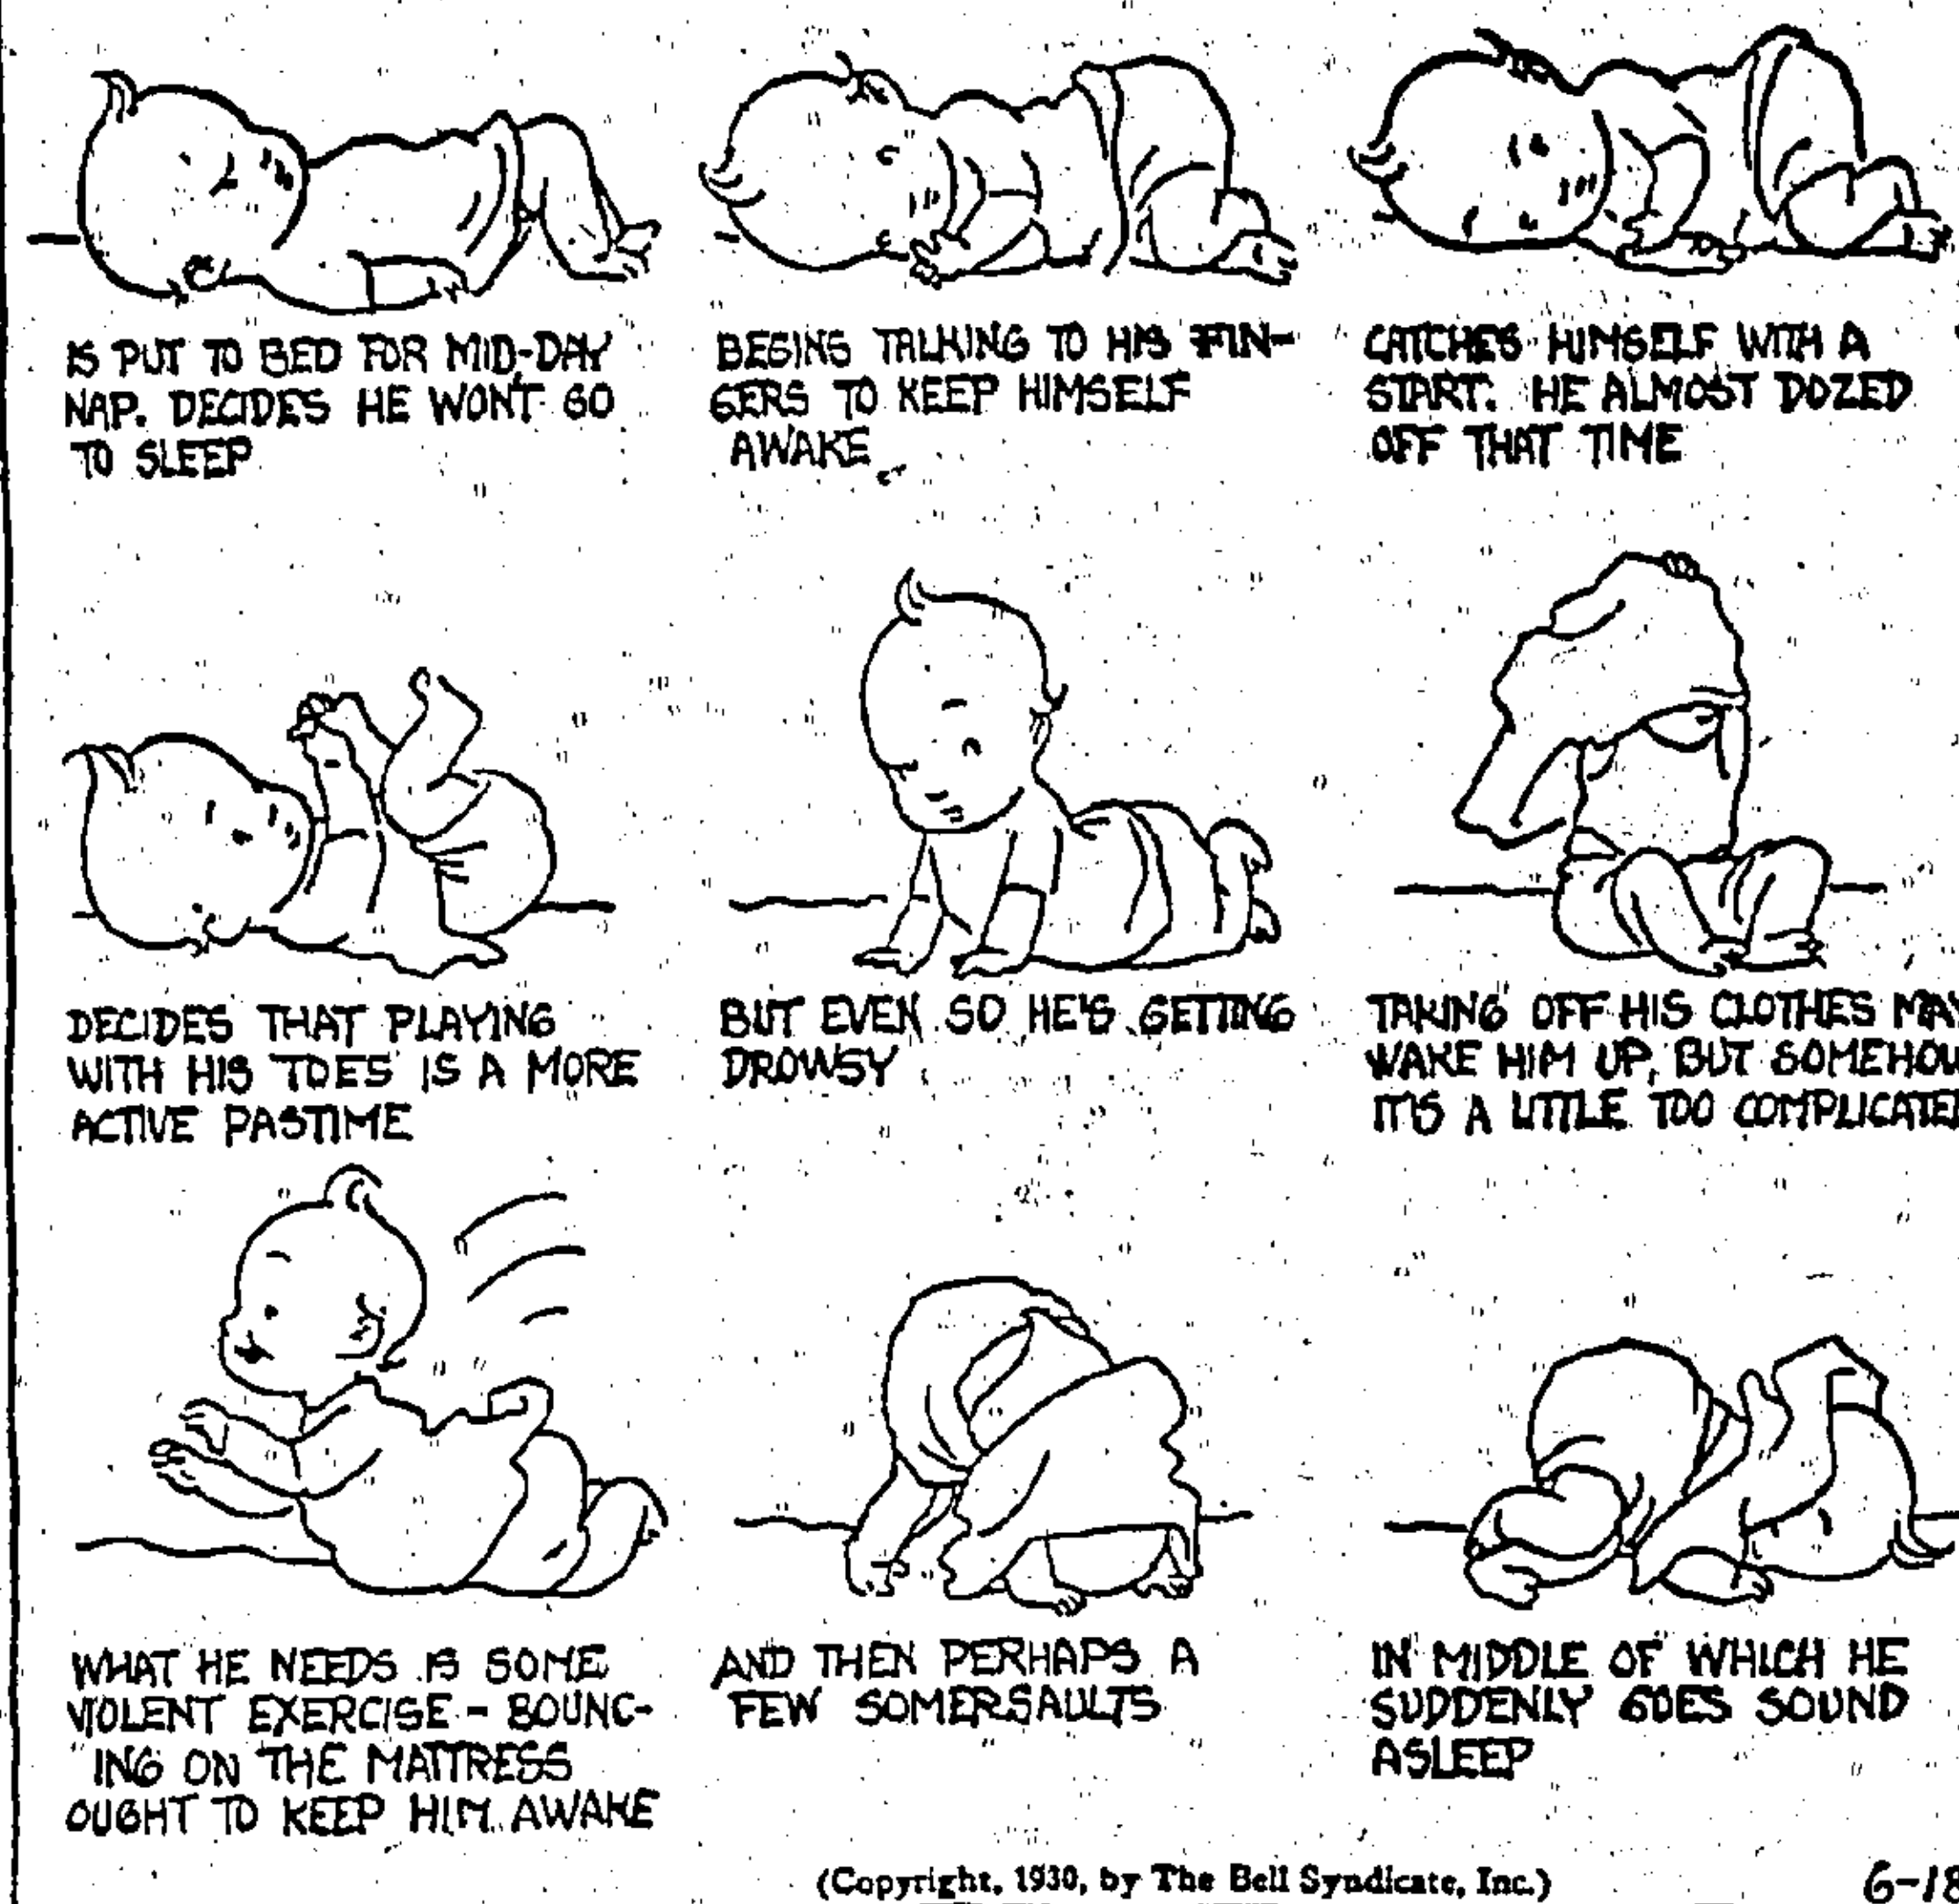

The third "that" burst the box, and its contents were scattered over the platform.

The porter shook his head.

"No," he said, "I think it won't get past Springfield. If it's going farther, it's not strong enough."

THE SILVER SCREEN.

ULRIC OUTSTANDING IN NEW PRODUCTION.

Lenore Ulric, as the vicious French girl of the tropics in "South Sea Rose," her second Fox Movietone all-talking picture, is the attraction at the Queen's Theatre.

"South Sea Rose," direction by Allan Dwan, is a comedy drama of treachery and conflict, involving the whimsies of this flaming hoyden and her seafaring suitors. As Rosalie, the irresistible charmer of a South Sea island, Miss Ulric's portrayal is comparable to her unforgettable roles in "Lula Belle" and "Kiki." In "South Sea Rose" her gift of singing and dancing is also impressively revealed.

The supporting cast of several stage and screen favourites includes Charles Bickford, Kenneth MacKenna, Tom Patricola, Elizabeth Patterson, George MacFarlane, Ilka Chase, Daphne Pollard, Sarrel MacDonald and others.

200,000 Miles of Travel.

Eight times around the world at the equator to make just part of a motion picture! That represents the collective mileage travelled by F. W. Murnau's cast and staff during the making of the wheat-ranch sequences for "City Girl" at Pendleton, Oregon.

The round trip from Pendleton to Camp Murnau clocked 45 miles. Something more than 100 made the trip daily for six weeks—some of them several times a day. William H. Steincamp, business manager for Murnau, kept figures on trips and passengers hauled in trucks, buses and automobiles, and declares the mileage piled up while in Pendleton is the equivalent of 200,000 for one person.

Notwithstanding the fact that the location was so far removed from commercial activity, production moved along on schedule, which bespeaks efficiency when one considers that all flood, water, and equipment had to be trucked from two and a half to twenty-five miles.

"City Girl," Fox Movietone talking picture, which comes to the Queen's Theatre on Sunday, features Charles Farrell and Mary Duncan, supported by David Torrence, Edith Yorks, Dawn O'Day and Quinn Williams.

Fastidious Hosiery

Not so many years ago the man who sported colourful socks was called 'a top,' 'a dude,' 'a knut.'

Now we realise these were brave pioneering spirits. They brought colour into hosiery, and taught us all to be fastidious in the matter of socks. The lesson has been a good one.

NEED FOR NEW NETHERSOLE HOSPITAL.

URGENT APPEAL FOR FUNDS: CAMPAIGN TO RAISE $150,000.

LONG RECORD OF VALUABLE SERVICES TO COLONY'S
SICK POOR.

At the annual meeting of the Alice Memorial and Affiliated Hospitals which was held at the Board Room of the Hong Kong General Chamber of Commerce yesterday, the Chairman, the Hon. Dr. S. W. T'ao, O.B.E., spoke on the urgent need for a new Nethersole Hospital.

To achieve this purpose, a sum of $150,000 is required and an appeal has been issued for donations. It was stated that the present Nethersole Hospital has done yeoman service for 37 years, and the time has now arrived when the building no longer serves its needs.

ALICE MEMORIAL HOSPITAL MEETING.

Supporting the Chairman were Dr. F. R. Ashton (Secretary), the Rev. H. R. Wells, Dr. Gibson, Mr. Justice J. R. Wood, Hon. Dr. Kotewall, Messrs. A. Stevenson, P. S. Sommerfelt, T. H. R. Shaw, Fung Kong Un, U. Ramjahn, and J. M. Wong.

Chairman's Speech.

In moving the adoption of the report and accounts the Chairman, said:—Gentlemen: The annual report and statement of accounts have been in your hands for some time and with your permission I propose to take them as read.

In reviewing the past year's work you will note that certain changes have taken place in the personnel of the medical staff and in the administration of the Hospitals. The new Alice Memorial Hospital, which was formally opened by H.E. Sir Cecil Clementi in February, 1929, has proved a great asset to the work. The Lecture Room especially has proved of value, while the new operation room, and the wards fitted with modern conveniences have added considerably to the efficiency of the medical and surgical work of the Hospital.

Throughout the year the medical work has been well maintained, the number of in-patients showing an increase as compared with the last four years. The decrease in the number of out-patients is accounted for by the closing of the Hollywood Road Dispensary, all the out-patients now being seen at the Alice Memorial Hospital, Bonham Road, where there has been an increase in numbers over previous years.

Training of Nurses.

The training of nurses and midwives continues to be an important feature of the work. The Chinese staff nurses trained in the hospitals are a great help; and there is an excellent spirit of esprit de corps among the nurses, both past and present, which has resulted in the formation of a Nurses' Association. I am very interested to learn that some of the women nurses have volunteered to nurse in the men's hospital if required and I hope that there will be a gradual development along these lines.

The accounts show a small deficit for the year, but the statement includes allowance for all sundry creditors.

This year, the low sterling value of the dollar will make it very difficult for us to make all our obligations, as the salaries of the European staff, passages and most of the medical supplies are paid in sterling, while the donations received are in dollars. To meet the deficiency I trust that the regular annual subscribers will have this in mind and new subscribers would be welcomed. On behalf of the Committee I desire to express our best thanks to all who have subscribed to the funds or given help in other ways.

New Building Needed.

The Nethersole Hospital which has done yeoman service for 37 years has now reached a stage when the building no longer meets the need of the work. The fabric has deteriorated and its equipment, which sufficed in earlier years, has become unsuited to modern conditions. The medical science now demands better accommodation and more modern equipment for the treatment of disease.

The Executive Committee has gone very carefully into the matter and has come to the conclusion that it is uneconomical to spend large sums of money for repairs, from year to year, in order to patch up this old building and that the problem of erecting a new Nethersole must now be faced. Sir Cecil Clementi, in his address at the opening of the new Alice Memorial Hospital, expressed the hope that the erection of a modern Nethersole would be undertaken as an early date. A sketch plan has been prepared by Messrs. Little, Adams and Wood which shows that a block similar in design to that of the Alice Memorial Hospital can be built on the site of the present building and when the scheme is completed the Nethersole and the Alice Memorial Hospital will form one large modern hospital building. A sum of $300,000 will be required for this building scheme, and towards this amount there is $50,000 in hand. An appeal is being issued asking for liberal donations so that the proposed building may be proceeded with as soon as possible.

Child Welfare.

The Nethersole has helped to supply the need in Hong Kong for special hospital work for women and children, by holding gynaecological, antenatal and child welfare clinics besides the daily general clinic for women and children. His Excellency Sir William Peel, when he visited the Kwong Wa Hospital a fortnight ago, expressed his appreciation of the interest that hospitals in Hong Kong are taking in baby welfare, while Lady Peel also takes a deep interest in hospital work for women and children. We earnestly hope therefore that the public will respond liberally to our appeal so that we may be able to undertake this necessary reconstruction without delay. Having made these few remarks I now move that the annual report and statement of accounts for 1929 be adopted.

Mr. U. Ramjahn, seconded, and the motion was carried unanimously.

The Hon. Dr. R. H. Kotewall, speaking at a later stage of the meeting in support of the appeal for funds to rebuild the Nethersole Hospital, said:—
Mr. Chairman and Gentlemen,—Before we disperse I should like to say a few words in support of the Chairman's appeal for funds to rebuild the Nethersole Hospital. A printed Appeal made in the names of the Executive Committee and of the Appeal Committee being in your hands, and the matter having been dealt with at some length in the Chairman's speech, there leaves little for me to say. We all know the great service the Nethersole Hospital has rendered to the Colony for the long period of nearly 38 years. Its work is essentially to minister to the needs of the sick poor, especially women and children, and to train Chinese women to be nurses and midwives; and this work has been an inestimable boon to the community.

To-day the building is in need of reconstruction. As a member of a special committee appointed some months ago to look into this question, I can give you the assurance that the building has now reached a stage when further patching and repairing would be decidedly uneconomical. You have heard from the Chairman that the fabric has deteriorated, and that its equipment has become unsuited to modern conditions.

Urgent Need.

I realise that the time is unpropitious for embarking upon this expenditure; but it is imperative and urgent, if the Hospital is to continue its good work. After all, the sum required—$150,000—is not so large as to be beyond the means of this wealthy and generous community. To my mind, one cannot give for a worthier cause than for this. Speaking as a member of the community and not as one serving on the Committee of the Hospital, I say that it is our bounden duty to help this institution. That the work of the Nethersole and its affiliated hospitals has been appreciated by the public can be judged from the fact that apart from the financial support which it has always received from all sections and classes of the community, many leading residents have served on its General Committee and very busy men such as Sir James Stewart Lockhart, the Hon. Mr. A. W. Brown, the Hon. Mr. E. R. Hallifax, the late Mr. P. H. Holroyd and Sir Henry Pollock have acted as its Chairman.

The Nethersole has behind it a long record of thirty-seven years of splendid service, and there has been no opportunity for any greater good, if it were given a building adequate and suited to its needs. It is in your power to translate that potentiality into reality, and I am confident you will do it.

The appeal for funds, signed by the members of the Executive Committee is as follows:—

Forty-three years ago the Alice Memorial Hospital came into being as a hospital for the treatment of poor Chinese by Western medical methods. Six years after, the Nethersole Hospital, which is affiliated to the Alice Memorial Hospital, was erected by the generosity of the late Mr. W. H. Davis for the twofold purpose of treating, by the same methods, Chinese women and children, and of training Chinese women nurses and midwives.

In 1929 the Alice Memorial Hospital was re-erected on a new site on Bonham Road, adjacent to the Nethersole, at a cost of about $100,000. Appeal for financial help was made to the public for equipment only as the new site was the gift of the London Missionary Society and the cost of the building was defrayed out of the proceeds of the sale of the old site.

A stage has now been reached when the Nethersole Hospital also needs reconstruction. The building has been carefully examined by Messrs. Little, Adams and Wood, architects, and by a special committee of the Executive Committee of the Alice Memorial and Affiliated Hospitals and it was found to be so deteriorated that to attempt to renovate it would be neither economical nor advisable.

A New Building.

After very careful and earnest consideration, the Committee has decided to erect a new hospital on its present site. Opportunity will be taken to build a larger hospital on modern lines, and more suited to the needs of the time.

Messrs. Little, Adams and Wood have submitted an estimate for the erection of two blocks which would conform with that of the Alice Memorial Hospital. The estimated cost of the new building is approximately $300,000.

For the purpose of building a small extension to the Nethersole, a building fund was instituted in 1913, and the amount now standing to its credit is about $50,000, which the Committee has decided to employ towards the cost of the proposed reconstruction. A sum of $150,000 is thus still required for the building scheme, and we therefore appeal to you for a generous donation.

Fine Record.

In asking for your help we would emphasize the services which the Nethersole has rendered to the Chinese community for the long period of thirty-seven years. Its work is essentially to minister to the needs of the sick poor, especially women and children, and to train Chinese women to be nurses and midwives, and there can be no question that this work is greatly needed and most valuable to the community. With increased accommodation and a new building erected on the lines of modern hospital construction, the Nethersole can render yet greater service to the Colony. It is with this object in view that we now come before you for your help.

We know that you have many other calls to meet, but we feel that the imperative necessity for reconstructing the Nethersole and the vital importance of the work which it is doing must appeal to you, and that you will make yet another effort to help us with a liberal gift towards the fund for rebuilding this "Abode of Life, the Treasury to which the poor can come with their need, and the rich with their sympathy."

The following members were elected to the General Committee:—Messrs. T. H. R. Shaw, Chan Lim Pak, Fung Gong Un, Lau Chong and Dr. J. C. Macgown.

The Hon. Dr. S. W. T'ao was elected Chairman of Committee, and the Hon. Mr. Paul Launder, Deputy Chairman, while the Hon. Dr. R. H. Kotewall, Mr. T. N. Chau, Mr. J. M. Wong, Mr. W. E. L. Shenton and Mr. T. H. R. Shaw were elected to serve as the Executive Committee.

The meeting terminated with votes of thanks to Rev. B. H. Wells, who had been Secretary for the past few years, and to Mr. T. N. Chau for collecting subscriptions from Chinese friends. Messrs. Linstead and Davis were also thanked for their services as hon. treasurers.

HONG KONG SCOUTS VISIT CANTON.

In return for the visit of the Canton Boy Scout contingent some time ago, the 10th Hong Kong (Catholic) Group of Boy Scouts left last night for Canton. There are over fifty in the party (Hovers, Scouts and Cubs) together with their Group Captain, Roy F. E. Terrell and Scoutmaster H. W. Luke. They will stay at the Catholic Cathedral at Canton.

Many entertainments have been arranged by the Canton Boy Scout Association and sports will be indulged in. The visit will serve to renew friendship and good feeling with Canton brother scouts.

The party will stay at Canton for six days and will return next Thursday.

WHAT'S WRONG AT THE CATHEDRAL.

[TO THE EDITOR OF THE "HONG KONG DAILY PRESS."]

SIR,—It is a great pity, I think, that there are people in this place who dearly love to poke a finger of scorn at the Anglican Church and its dignitaries, and often criticism which is anything but constructive, rather destructive. It must be perfectly obvious to any person who really loves the Church and has its affairs at heart that the various people who have recently rushed into print and offered remarks uncalculated for regarding the Bishop and Dean are not loyal Church people, and therefore such remarks ought to be ignored and smiled at.

It appears to be cases of "Empty vessels make the most sound."

I am not prepared to discuss why the Bishop and Dean are in London at the moment. In my opinion it would have been far better to wait until these two gentlemen return to the Colony, and then if anyone wants to have his or her say, have it, or hold his peace!

In any case, the Bishop would have gone to London this year owing to the Lambeth Conference.

No one more than I knows how far short of the mark the Church has fallen in Hong Kong, and I sincerely hope that in the near future we shall have services at the Cathedral which will be in keeping with any Cathedral—I mean in dignity, reverence, and yes! a little more ritual.

I loathe, for one thing, musical settings that are mutilated, and that used at the Choral Eucharist. To any musical person such action is unpardonable. The Cathedral possesses a brilliant organist and a magnificent organ.

Where, then, does the fault lie? Things half-done are neither done nor undone, and for goodness sake let us have all the pomp and ceremony that the Anglican Church allows. The people who will grouse are those who know nothing of Church history and the Canons of the Church, and it is up to the clergy to educate these people.

Look at the number of pades in this place! Where do they go on Sundays? What is wanted at St. John's Cathedral is more liaison between Bishop, Dean, Priest, and Layman. Until this liaison is completed, the congregations will grow less and less, and which at the moment are deplorable in the extreme.—Yours, etc.,

MIRFIELD.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE.

[TO THE EDITOR OF THE "HONG KONG DAILY PRESS."]

SIR,—As on a recent occasion, a writer in your correspondence columns misquotes several passages from their context in the Christian Science text-book, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures." I trust you will kindly grant space to reply.

Referring to this method of criticism, Mrs. Eddy writes:—"These criticisms are generally based on detached sentences or clauses separated from their context. Even the Scriptures, which grow in beauty and consistency from one grand root, appear contradictory when subjected to such usage. Jesus said, 'Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God (Truth)' (Science and Health, p. 341)."

From the metaphysical standpoint that God, Spirit, is the only Cause and Creator, and that He made man in His image and likeness, the passages referred to are scientific and in accordance with the spiritual teachings contained in the Scriptures.

Mrs. Eddy taught many of her students without price, and any sum paid for instruction by her was totally inadequate in comparison with the good gain. Many who received such instruction were able to destroy so-called incurable diseases when all material methods had failed, and there are some who are still engaged in this healing work. I submit that such results could never be achieved except by the utmost reliance on God, and the purest spirituality. Yours, etc.,

CLERICAL INFLUENCE WANING?

[TO THE EDITOR OF THE "HONG KONG DAILY PRESS."]

SIR,—May I intervene in this discussion to say first—that I think it a very good thing to have these matters ventilated publicly, and second—to deplore the introduction of any side-issues, sectarian or other.

This discussion arose in the first place out of certain statements made in London by the Bishop and Mr. Halward. Some of those statements were foolish; others unwise, but if we are to do any good by this open expression of opinions, let us keep to the points at issue, and not go wandering off making comparisons with people with whose affairs we have no concern.

I am afraid there is a very wide impression that the Cathedral clergy have got out of touch with the community, and it seems to me that in this discussion we should confine ourselves to exchanging ideas as to ways and means of remedying this state of affairs.

If it is true that the clergy do leave the field so often and for so long, as has been said, then it is no wonder the influence of the Cathedral is waning. How can we best start to put things right?—Yours, etc.,

PERPLEXED.

PARSONS AND PRIESTS.

[TO THE EDITOR OF THE "HONG KONG DAILY PRESS."]

SIR,—Perhaps the writer, who is neither an Anglican nor a Roman Catholic, but who nevertheless calls himself a follower of Jesus Christ, may be allowed to express his views on the controversy regarding the Bishop's leave.

It seems to me that the essential difference between the ministries of the two denominations is this:—The clergyman regards his calling as a profession, whereas in the case of the priests it is considered a vocation, for which he gives up everything.

From experience derived from residence in Europe my opinion is that the Catholic priest is less affected by worldly considerations in his general outlook, and is more of a friend to all sections of his flock than is the case of his Anglican colleague.

To put the thing into a nutshell he dedicates himself to the service of the Church, and such questions as leave, salaries, etc., are only of the slightest importance.

There is a germ of truth in the following story: A lady parishioner, while visiting the wife of a vicar, found her busily packing. On enquiring the reason she was told that the leader of the flock had received a "higher" calling. "And what does your husband think of the offer?" "Oh, he is praying for Divine guidance in his study."—Yours, etc.,

WAS IT CRICKET?

[TO THE EDITOR OF THE "HONG KONG DAILY PRESS."]

SIR,—Surely our old comrade "B. Abbit" is wide of the mark in suggesting that folk were angry with the umpires at Leeds!

I don't think anyone has suggested that the umpires were biased in favour of England. What people were "kicking" at was the fact that advantage was taken of doubtful circumstances to make an appeal to the umpires.

Certainly, since the long-coated gentlemen allowed the appeal—when it was a second time after a five-minute interval—we must assume that in their opinion the light was bad. But as I understand the situation, the popular indignation was not against the umpires for accepting the appeal, but against the batsmen for making it. Read what the "Daily Mail" said about the incident:—"The demonstrations suggest the question whether we in English cricket are not in danger of allowing a too rigid adherence to the letter of the rules (when dealing with such matters as the state of the pitch or the quality of the light) to dominate the game and diminish its interest. If cricket is to attract the public and recover from the rut into which it fell a few years ago, interruptions of play in the presence of vast multitudes of onlookers must be reduced to the minimum."

As for "B. Abbit's" references of the cricketers who write as critics, you cannot get away from the fact that men like Warner, Gilligan, MacLaren, Troup, and Faulkner know what they are talking about when the subject is cricket, and the fact that their criticism is not directed at the crowd who barracked Hobbs and Sutcliffe shows that for once, at any rate, the mob was right!—Yours, etc.,

WESTERN BARBARIANS.

"In the process of evolution that is now taking place, whereby the Chinese people are endeavouring to discard the old superstitions and practices of the country and absorb in their stead the ways of Western nations, under the impression that Western culture embodies all that is considered modern and desirable, it cannot be urged too strongly to make haste slowly, to weigh the pros and cons carefully before adopting Western ways that at first sight may appear to be an advance over native customs." This sound and sane advice is given to its readers by the Canton Gazette, and we heartily endorse it. Our contemporary goes on:—"China is one of the few countries of the world that can boast of a long history, dating back to the dim ages of the past; her culture is the result of hoary experience, time-tested and of proven worth, and it has gone through such a long period of development and refinement that courtesy, respect for others, seem to be inbred qualities in the Chinese. No matter what his station in life, from the man of wealth to the lowliest laborer, politeness invariably characterises the reception accorded to all strangers." Except that we would prefer to use the word "generally" instead of "invariably," we can also approve those sentiments.

But then the Canton Gazette proceeds to build up an argument with which we cannot agree. It is alleged that a German doctor "betrayed a total lack of manners and courtesy towards a group of visitors to his hospital." Other instances of a similar nature are alleged to have occurred "where Westerners display the elemental instincts of the animal." No details are given of these latter deplorable incidents, but the Canton paper goes on to say that they "do not enhance the reputation of the Westerner, but rather serve to throw into relief the time-proven features of Chinese culture. They show-up Western culture for the thin veneer that it is, a flimsy covering that hides from the light of day the barbarity of the aboriginal, yet is not sufficiently developed to prevent the elemental instincts from breaking out on the slightest provocation. These instances go to show that real culture is inborn, not acquired. Chinese culture through its development through the ages has become ingrained in the people, a natural instinct, while the Western people show that their culture is but an acquired trait, a false covering to hide the coarseness below."

We are not disposed just now to argue the point as to culture being a Chinese natural instinct, nor to make invidious comparisons between Eastern and Western codes of etiquette. But we think it necessary to remind the Canton Gazette that the tone of the article under notice does not show any evidence of the influence of "time-proven features of Chinese culture." We do not know the German doctor who has been attacked, nor do we know what Westerners may have displayed the elemental instincts of the animal; but we do know that comment of this character does not make for that cordial good-feeling which should exist between foreigners and Chinese generally. No foreigner does—or can—deny that there are bores and cads among his compatriots, or that some residents in, as well as passing visitors to, China behave in a manner which makes all decent-minded people feel ashamed. But to admit these occasional lapses is not to confess that good Western manners are in any way inferior to "good Eastern customs. It is not the code that is at fault, but the breaker of it. The German doctor may have been very rude—we do not know his version of the case, so cannot presume to judge. Other foreigners in China may have behaved—as alleged—more like animals than civilised human beings—we do not know anything of the incidents complained of. But it is not only unkind but grossly unfair of the Canton Gazette to frame so sweeping an indictment of all foreigners on such flimsy evidence as that presented, or rather hinted at. We want to see much closer friendship between East and West—more understanding each of the other, with which must come more sympathy. We want to see China adopting what seems "good" from the West, and avoiding—if she can—that which is bad, for no foreigner in his senses, whatever his nationality, will pretend that in his country culture has attained such a stage that there exists, inborn in every subject or citizen, a natural desire to put self last instead of first, to follow rigidly and without hesitation the course of action "which seems right, to do not unto others what you would not they should do unto you," as Confucius taught. Why the Canton Gazette should make this ungracious and uncalled for attack upon foreigners we do not know. Western culture may be a thin veneer, but Oriental politeness—and ideas of fair play—are certainly no more substantial if the attitude of the Canton journal may be accepted as a fair example.

The all-American fight, for the men's doubles championship at Wimbledon resulted in a win for the holders, W. Allison and J. Van Ryn, over J. H. Doeg and G. M. Lott by 6-3, 6-3, 6-2. It was a disappointing exhibition, and the reason for the easy victory of Allison and Van Ryn was the dreadful failure of Doeg, who strikes third in the United States, and has beaten the great Tilden. Doeg's fast left-handed service is regarded as his greatest asset. That day it was an almost total loss. An unpleasant feature of the match was the manner in which all four players ignored the umpire. If they did not agree with his decision they blandly carried on as if he were not there. As a confirmed habitué of the Centre Court remarked, "These lads certainly have quaint court manners!"

Startling revelations concerning a novel form of commercial espionage were made at Paris last week in connection with the arrest of two prominent American residents of Paris, Miss Davis and Miss Oliver, who, it is alleged, systematically spied out the closely guarded secrets of the latest fashions, created by French dressmakers either by bribing some of the designers or by copying the dresses by ingenious methods during private mannequin parades. Their codes and copies of the latest models were found in the flats of the arrested women whose trades was, it is reported, extremely profitable though now they face heavy prison sentences.

The Socialists have announced that they will resume work in all factories and workshops whose management has granted an increase furthermore they will form special guards to protect their followers from Communist attacks. The Italian Ambassador in Madrid has presented to the Government a Note protesting against the recent Spanish Customs tariff increases, which, it is claimed, conflict with the provisions of the Hispano-Italian Commercial Treaty. These increases were, it was understood though officially denied, directed against the United States and their new Customs tariff as a sort of reprisal.

Mitchelson, 41, an accountant, was bound over by Mr. Graham Campbell at Bow-street Police Court on a charge of stealing £345 from the Globe Publishing Company, Strand, by whom he had been employed since 1923. It was stated that Mitchelson went to Monte Carlo and played at the gaming tables in the hope of regaining the amount of his deficiency. Instead he lost all the money he took with him, and was arrested at Newhaven on his return to England.

In connection with the serious increase of unemployment in Germany, as shown by the fact that the total now amounts to 2,757,000, or about double the total of July 31, 1929, and 42,000 more than a month ago, the Berlin municipal authorities announce that the unemployed in that city now number 315,000 which, including their dependents, equals about 20 per cent. of the capital's entire population.

Viscount Craigavon, Prime Minister of Northern Ireland, speaking at a church fete at Bangor, County Down, made what he described as a strong appeal to the people of Ulster of all classes to keep away as far as they could from the attractive temptations of short-term loans and pay payments. People in other parts of the world had unfortunately succumbed to the temptations, to the detriment of the countries in which these people lived.

A record journey from Paris to Ireland, made possible by using the new Imperial Airways London-Birmingham-Manchester-Liverpool service, was made recently by a Roman Catholic priest. His Worship suggested that she should be taken to the S.C.A. and remanded the case.

Looking Back 25 Years. In consequence of the Yee Wo Company, a Chinese firm up-country, having counterfeited the trademark of a match-box label, the Japanese Consul-General at Hong Kong has communicated this matter to the Viceroy. His Excellency has given orders to the Nam Hoi Magistrate to have the owners of the Yee Wo Company arrested and punished. I hear that counterfeiters of trademark labels of all descriptions are common up-country, and European firms do not seem to take any trouble to put a stop to such dishonest practices.—Hong Kong Daily Press, August 16, 1930.

Looking Back 50 Years. We have received the second number of the Foochow Express and Shipping Gazette, a new weekly paper. The first number we have not received. It appears, however, that it contained an article accusing Mr. Lator, the retiring editor of the Foochow Herald, of breach of contract. Mr. Lator thereupon instituted a criminal prosecution and the case duly came before Her Majesty's Consul, who dismissed the summons, with costs against the complainant.—Hong Kong Daily Press, August 16, 1930.

INDEPENDENCE OF SOUTH AFRICA.

RIGHT OF SECESSION TO BE MAINTAINED.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

MADRID, August 14. General J. B. M. Hertzog, who is en route to London to represent South Africa at the Imperial Conference, interviewed by Reuters, said that the Conference recognition of South African independence was of paramount importance. Under no conditions could he admit uncertainty thereon, and when the report of the last Conference, granting the independent status of a Dominion, came up for confirmation, it would be made clear that the right of secession to secede is to be maintained.

Referring to economic problems before the Conference, he said that the South African Government was prepared to enter into a trade preference agreement with Great Britain over a definite period provided that Great Britain extended similar preference to South African products.

The matter was telegraphically reported to Yen Hsi Shan, but no reply has been received.

R.100 HOMEWARD BOUND.

ESTABLISHING NEW ATLANTIC RECORD.

[BRITISH WIRELESS SERVICE.]

RUGBY, August 14. Seven and three-quarter hours after leaving St. Hubert's Air Port, Montreal, on her homeward flight, the airship R.100 passed over Anticosti Island at the mouth of the St. Lawrence River.

The distance between Montreal and Anticosti Island is 540 miles in a straight line, which makes the speed of the airship little under 70 miles an hour.

Eighty Miles An Hour.

Later a message from R.100, however, announced that the speed had been increased to 80 miles an hour.

The weather conditions are favourable for a quick trip across the Atlantic. The Air Ministry states that the winds are westerly along the whole route. The average speed of the winds at 2,000 feet is about 20 to 30 miles per hour along the western half of the route and 50 miles along the eastern half. Some decrease is probable in this rate, but, nevertheless, following winds will be strongest in the latter part of the journey.

When he left the Air Port her Commander said that he hoped to reach Cardington in 50 hours. If this schedule is adhered to, the R.100 will beat the Graf Zeppelin's time for the West to East crossing. The German airship took 55 hours 24 minutes to cross from Lakehurst, New Jersey, to Friedrichshafen, Lake Constance. The R.100 already holds the record for the East to West Atlantic crossing.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

LONDON, August 14. The R.100 airship, with a following wind and clear skies, is flying homewards at the rate of 75 miles an hour. It is expected that she will reach Cardington in 55 hours, thus establishing a new trans-Atlantic record.

The steadiness of the ship is marvellous and everything is very comfortable.

The airship is enjoying ideal weather and passed over the Straits of Belle Isle at midday, maintaining a steady average of 70 miles an hour. She covered, in the first eight hours, a distance which took 24 hours on the outward voyage.

The R.100 will moor at Cardington on Friday night if possible.

Passing over the north shore of the Gulf of St. Lawrence, 1,500 feet the passengers saw occasional passing vessels or a lonely light-house keeper, and heard the salute of sirens above the drone of the engines. The wide vista of the calm Atlantic beneath was the only reminder that they were at sea. The airship was as steady as if she were still at the mooring mast.

[BRITISH WIRELESS SERVICE.]

RUGBY, August 14. A remarkable flight from Manchester to London was made to-day by a Handley-Page Napier air liner flying on the Imperial Airways Service, the journey of 200 miles being covered in actual flying time of only 90 minutes, at an average speed of approximately 140 miles an hour.

BIRTH CONTROL.

REVOLUTION IN CHRISTIAN MORALITY.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

LONDON, August 15. Ecclesiastical sanction of birth control, which a leading article in the Church Times describes as a positive revolution in Christian morality and a departure from the position adopted at the last Lambeth Conference in 1920, threatens to become a first-class controversy.

The Church Times publishes a letter from the Anglo-Catholic Bishop of Bloemfontein, who is one of the 67 opponents of the Lambeth resolution on the approval of contraceptives, stating that "in order to clear my soul I wish to say that there are statements in the report from which I conscientiously and vehemently dissociate myself."

GERMAN-POLISH RELATIONS.

POLES OFFENDED BY GERMAN UTTERANCE.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

WARSAW, August 14. M. Zaleski, the Foreign Minister, to-day called on the German Chargé d'Affaires and formally protested against the speech of Herr Treviranus, and asserted that such speeches made it impossible to improve German-Polish relations.

[A message of August 11 stated:—Lively discussions at Warsaw, with possibly even a diplomatic incident, are likely to follow a speech by Herr Treviranus, a former Minister of the occupied regions, in which he outspokenly discussed the question of Germany's eastern frontiers. Speaking at a demonstration to celebrate the tenth anniversary of the plebiscite of East Prussia (in which 90 per cent. of the inhabitants expressed the desire to remain in Germany), Herr Treviranus referred to the Vistula region of Poland as an unhealed wound in Germany's eastern flank. He said that the future of Poland could only be assured if Germany and Poland were united in perpetual union by unjust frontiers. "Our eyes see with grief the land which to-day is lost to us, but one day will be re-won. The day will come when the fight for justice will free Germany and Europe."]

DROUGHT EFFECTS IN U.S.

CONFERENCE OF STATE GOVERNORS.

[REUTER'S AMERICAN SERVICE.]

WASHINGTON, August 14. A conference of Governors of ten States in the drought area, convened by President Hoover, met at the White House to-day in an effort to arrange effective State and local relief.

The Kentucky delegate before the conference stated that the maize crop in Kentucky would be only ten per cent. and tobacco twenty per cent. of the normal.

Meanwhile the Supreme Court of New York State has appointed a referee to investigate an allegation that food and milk dealers have formed a combine to raise their prices, using the drought as an excuse.

The Governors' Conference has agreed to a programme of co-operative relief, whereby the Federal States Governments will work together to help over the winter the families deprived of means of support through failure of the crops. The programme will be carried out by means of public and private loans to the Red Cross, also by providing employment and reducing the railway rates on food for livestock.

The damage is estimated at $50,000.

[A message of August 13 stated:—The Providence coal mining district of Kentucky, which has been torn by labour troubles for months, was plunged at six in the morning, when dropping a number of bombs near the entrance to the mines. There were no casualties and no damage, whilst some bombs did not explode. They were found to be made of dynamite wrapped up in adhesive tape with fuses attached.]

EXTRALITY IN CHINA.

BRITAIN PREPARING DRAFT PROPOSALS.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

LONDON, August 14. With reference to the reports of Sino-British negotiations regarding extra-territoriality, Reuters learns that the British Government is preparing draft proposals.

Nothing is known in London about the Chinese draft proposals, nor of instructions to Sir Miles Lampson to proceed to Nanking, although he will obviously go there if the negotiations reach a definite stage.

Up to the present no decision has been reached regarding the removal of the British Legation from Peking to Nanking.

(Wah Tze Yat Pao.)

British Minister Visiting Nanking.

PEIPING, August 15. Sir Miles Lampson, the British Minister, will leave for Nanking within five days, to discuss with the Ministry of Foreign Affairs regarding the abolition of extraterritoriality.

CANTON MUNICIPAL GOVERNMENT.

GOVERNMENT OF KWANGTUNG TO HAVE CONTROL.

[FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.]

CANTON, August 15. Owing to certain arrangements not being completed, the change of status of the Canton Municipal Government will not be effected until the end of this month.

The change was originally planned for August 1, after which the control of the Canton Municipality was to have shifted from Nanking to the Provincial Government of Kwangtung. But so much work has been involved in the reorganization that more time is now required. Each department and bureau of the Canton Municipal Government has been busy winding up its work preparatory to turning it over to the Provincial Government for auditing.

In all probability Mayor Lin Wan Koi will continue his present office after the change has been effected. He had frequently sent in a letter of resignation to Nanking, but each time the Central Authorities prevailed upon him to withdraw it. In fact, Nanking reappointed him Mayor of Canton after the city is placed under the direct control of the Provincial Council, and this is understood to have the approval of General Chen Ming Shu.

The personnel will remain practically unchanged, but the Bureau of Public Safety, which has been an integral part of the Municipal Government, will be detached and placed upon the control of the Provincial Government directly. After the change has taken place the Bureau will take orders from the Provincial Council only, and not from the Mayor, as formerly.

HO CHIEN IMPEACHED.

CANTON HUNANESE PETITION.

[FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.]

CANTON, August 15. The Hunanese living in Canton to-day addressed a petition to Marshal Chiang Kai Shek and other members of the Nanking Government, asking that General Ho Chien, Governor of Hunan, be condignly punished for his failure to stop the Communist rape of Changsha and other cities nearby.

The petition, after giving a vivid account of the recent Communist holocaust there, charges Ho Chien with permitting these desperadoes to enter and rape the city without offering resistance. He was in charge of both the military and civil affairs of the Province, and should therefore be held responsible for the widespread death and destruction brought about by the Communist upheaval. The petition also requests the Central Government to send adequate troops to Hunan to deal effectively with the situation.

INDIAN ARMY READY FOR EMERGENCY.

GRAVE SITUATION IN PESHAWAR.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

SIMLA, August 15. One British and three Indian battalions as a precautionary measure are being moved up from Janshi to Rawalpindi, in south-east Peshawar.

An official communiqué describes the situation as one of considerable gravity and danger.

It says that the raiders are profiting by the high crops to elude the military forces. Their total strength is now about 1,200, moving rapidly in small gangs about the ravines and walled gardens.

Military action is being taken, but is difficult while the crops are high. They are undoubtedly receiving food and shelter from the villagers, who join them whenever there is any prospect of loot.

Troops in the Peshawar and Kohat district are in ample strength and are fully prepared for all eventualities.

SHAMROCK V. GREETED QUIETLY.

PREPARING FOR TRIP TO RHODE ISLAND.

[REUTER'S AMERICAN SERVICE.]

New York, August 14. Shamrock the Fifth's arrival at New London was a very quiet one.

The coastguard cutters in the harbour dipped their colours and a few tugs sounded their sirens, but there was no official welcome. The Shamrock V. is now preparing for the journey to Rhode Island for the races with the defender.

Her smooth underbody will be polished and the top of her 162 feet mast, which was shortened for the Atlantic crossing, will be fitted. No ordinary derrick is high enough to lift the top of the mast into place, but the difficulty has been overcome by the company operating the swing bridge offering the use of the bridge as an emergency hoisting device.

Meanwhile, the four American candidates are preparing at Rhode Island for the final elimination trials which will decide which yacht will defend the cup.

RENEWED TONG WAR IN NEW YORK.

CHINESE CHIEF SHOT DEAD.

A murder recently broke the peace between the Chinese Tong in the United States which, it was supposed, had been secured by the agreement to refrain from overt hostilities signed a few weeks ago by representatives of the Hip Sing Tong and the On Leong Tong. Throughout the struggle which preceded the agreement between these two Tong and cost a large number of lives, the Tong Ong Society, headed by Hung Wah Hung, remained neutral.

Hung Wah Hung went to the Chinese Theatre in the Bowery. He sat beside the aisle in the middle of the theatre, which was crowded with 500 spectators. A long Chinese drama was being presented on the stage and was drawing to its climax. The Chinese orchestra, which sits on the stage behind a low wooden fence, was playing low music as an actor, taking the rôle of a robber, moved stealthily across the stage. Suddenly, five shots were fired, and Hung Wah Hung rolled off his seat into the aisle with four bullets in his body and one in his head. The audience stampeded into the Bowery.

Nobody seems to know where the shots came from. The noise of the shots was partly drowned by the music and by the loud crashes of a thunderstorm which was going on outside. One clue is the fact that Hung Wah Hung was wearing a dark suit and a light shirt. The police in their attempts to find the convict murderer of another member of the On Leong Tong Society, who was stabbed to death in the street a few weeks ago. Special police squads were patrolling the streets of Chinatown in expectation of further outbreaks.

DELUGE IN CHIHLI.

THOUSAND VILLAGES SUBMERGED.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

Numbers of villagers have been without food for days and are still clinging to tree tops and the roofs of higher buildings.

Rescue work is now proceeding, but it is reliably reported that over 3,000 persons have been drowned.

KWANGSI CAMPAIGN.

NANKING FORCES CLOSING IN ON NANNING.

[FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.]

CANTON, August 15. The pro-Nanking forces operating in Kwangsi are reported to be closing in on Nanning, the capital of the Province.

They have abandoned the siege of Kweilin and other strategic points on the Kwei River and are concentrating on the West River with Nanning as their objective.

The Yunnanese forces are said to be co-operating with General Chen Tsai Tong from south of Nanning, but it is doubtful if much assistance can be obtained from these mercenary soldiers.

General Wong Shui Hung, leader of the Kwangsi troops, is still holding out at Luichow and other important places. He has as yet shown no sign of yielding, although he has been several times defeated.

LEADERSHIP OF MEN AND WOMEN.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

LONDON, August 14. The Archbishop of Canterbury's "Encyclical Letter to the Faithful" on behalf of the Lambeth Conference, states:—

"The leadership of women is needed as well as the leadership of men, for which we have enlarged the work entrusted to the order of deaconesses."

The resolutions are divided into six groups, the first of which urges a fresh representation of Christian doctrine by an appeal to the mind as well as the heart.

A dozen resolutions on the subject of marriage and sex recom-mend, inter alia, that the marriage of a person whose former partner is still living should not be celebrated according to the rites of the Church.

WATER POLO.

KOWLOON'S VICTORY OVER R.A.

PLEASING GAME.

A very pleasing game was witnessed last night, when R.A. met the Kowloon water polo team and lost by one goal to nil. Compared with previous games, last night's match was one of the cleanest seen this season, and the referee's whistle against "fouls" was seldom blown.

Quick passing was the keynote of Kowloon's success over the military contingent, and their victory of the only goal scored tells of the stout resistance put up by the R.A. men.

The goal was scored in the first half, when Wichee, playing back for Kowloon, took possession of the ball and travelled almost half of the pool before he passed the ball to Kerr. The latter sent in a back-hander which took both R.A. backs and goalie by surprise.

Play in the second half was even, both sides making occasional raids. There was no further scoring, and the final whistle found the Kowloon team winning by one goal to nil.

The teams were: Kowloon S.C.: G. Angus, Wichee, Henry, Sterling, Bailton, Kerr and E. Murphy.

R.A.: Ribbands, Oliver, Lt. Dargersfeld, Cavanagh, Lewis, Forrester and Gray.

Tilden lost the first set to Wutter at 1-6, and Wutter was leading by four games to nil in the second set when the crowd, despite the appeals of the umpire persistently laughed at Tilden's failure to win points.

Thereupon Tilden walked up to the net, shook hands with his opponent and walked off the court.

K.O.Y.L.I. CUP COMPETITION NEXT MONTH.

An American tournament is now being run by the Hong Kong Polo Club and four teams have entered. They are the Gunners, Hurricanes, Typhoons and El Gordo. Up to date only one game has been decided, the Typhoons having the better of their meeting with the Gunners.

This tournament is more or less in the shape of a "loosener" for the K.O.Y.L.I. Cup competition which is scheduled to start in September. According to the present arrangements, it is hoped to have the finals of this competition played off on September 20, when a Gymkhana will be held by the Polo Club in conjunction with the Machine Gun Company of the Volunteers. There will be two events confined to members of the Machine Gun Company, while six events will be for members of the Polo Club. It is hoped to arrange a few ladies' races, and also a couple open to all comers.

The Gymkhana has been arranged to fill the place of the interport game as the Club does not intend to send a team to Shanghai to challenge for the Kewick Cup. A band will be in attendance during the afternoon when tea and refreshments will be obtainable.

The programme will be published shortly.

The American Tournament.

The following are the teams taking part in the tournament which is in progress now:—

Gunners: Major Harrison, Mr. Mould, Capt. Heritage and Mr. Schirmer.

Hurricanes: Col. Savile, Col. Maloine, Mr. Johnson and Mr. Wolfe-Barry.

Typhoons: Major Campbell, Mr. Heard, Mr. Gordon and Mr. Stanton.

El Gordo: Capt. Carmichael, Mr. Glegg, Mr. Bramwell and Mr. Worral.

ATHLETICS DOUBLE-HEADER WIN.

DEFEAT OF THE DODGERS BY ST. LOUIS.

[UNITED PRESS.]

New York, August 9.—Babe Ruth, the home run king and pride of the Yankees, was hurt in the first inning of to-day's Yankees-Cardinals game here, when Hungling of the Browns tagged him out at the home plate. Hungling caught a throw-in to the plate and whacked the ball down hard on Ruth, but the injury is not considered serious. The game was tied at 8-8 in the final inning and Wilson of the Yankees hit a single which brought in the winning run for the New Yorkers, raising their percentage to .588.

The Athletics, winning both games of a double-header against the Chicago White Sox, by scores of 9 to 2 and 3 to 0, respectively, ran up their percentage to .673, whilst the Senators, losing both games of a double-header with the Indians at Washington, dropped to .581.

The first game was featured by three errors for each team, and the Clevelanders won by 13 to 7. In the second there was but one error, by Cleveland, and the Indians won by 4 to 2.

Detroit's Tigers, playing at Boston, whitewashed the Red Sox by 3 to 0 in an errorless contest wherein the Tigers made but six hits and the Sox but nine.

The National League.

In the National League, Brooklyn's leadership was slightly trimmed when the St. Louis nosed out a 4-3 win. Each team got ten hits and the Dodgers made the sole error of the contest. Brooklyn now have a percentage of .611. The second-place Chicago Cubs were cheated out of a chance to edge up from their .585 when rain halted their game with the Braves in the second inning.

The Giants, in third place, boosted their percentage to .570 when they won from the Pirates at Pittsburgh by 10-6. The Pirates made two errors to one for the Giants, each team getting 15 hits.

In a close game at Cincinnati, the Reds, who committed two errors but profited by three from the opposition, trimmed the Phillies by 3 to 1. This depressed the Phillies' tall and percentage to .343, as compared with .342 for Boston in the other league.

can League Babe Ruth, although injured yesterday when he was tagged too hard at the plate, went into the Yankee-Browns games at New York and hit his forty-second home run of the season, in addition to driving three other runs over the plate and gaining a victory for his team by 14-11.

The Athletics did not play to-day and their percentage remained at .673 but the Senators, in second position in the American League ranking, administered a sound 18 to 8 trouncing to the Cleveland Indians, with the aid of a run of 11 tallies in the eighth inning. The game was played at Washington. This brought the Senators up to a percentage of .595. The Yankees have .588, however.

Detroit's Tigers won from the Red Sox at Boston by a score of 4 to 2, the Sox making the sole error of the game and getting six hits to Detroit's nine.

Big Scores in National League.

It was a day of double-headers in the National League. Most important, of course, were the twin defeats of the Dodgers at St. Louis. The Cards took the first game at 8 to 2, St. Louis getting 11 hits to Brooklyn's seven and the Dodgers made the only error of the contest. The second game was a whitewash for the Dodgers, by 4-0, and Brooklyn made only five hits.

Wilson, of the Cubs, was the hero of the Boston-Chicago double-header. He made two home runs in the course of the day. In the second inning of the second game, the Cubs netted eight runs, assisted by Wilson's homer. The score of the first game was 8-0, of the second 11-1. The Braves committed three errors in the second contest and got but five hits, while in the first game they made but three hits.

The Phillies won both games of a double-header against the Reds game-overwhelmingly with 21 hits, which, coupled with but five hits for the Reds and three errors, permitted a score of 18-0. The second game went to the Phillies by 4 to 3.

CORRESPONDENCE.

"IT ISN'T CRICKET!"

[TO THE EDITOR OF THE "HONG KONG DAILY PRESS"]

Sir,—Apropos your leader under the above heading, you are quite correct when you say that the expression "It isn't cricket" has puzzled more than one foreign student of the English language.

Some years ago I was playing in a football-match here. It was a League fixture, and the destination of the shield for the season depended very much on the result of the game.

There was no score till the half-time whistle went, and after the interval the players came back fresh and determined to win, come what may. Play was getting very rough, and on one occasion one of the opposing backs kicked our left-wing because he could not stop this speedy player.

This was followed by more rough play on both sides, and the poor referee had all his work cut out to prevent a free fight. At last, one of our men received a punch full on the point when he tried to head the ball into the net following a corner-kick.

That was more than I could stand, so I went up to the offender and said:—"Look here, that isn't cricket, you know!" "Oh, I know it isn't cricket," came the rejoinder, "this is FOOTBALL!"—Yours, etc.,

[SWIMMING.—We have received a letter in which some sarcasmic comment is made upon Mr. Johnston's statement to our representative regarding the reasons for his failure to make better time last Saturday in his attempt to lower Takahashi's record.]

In fairness to Mr. Johnston it should be stated that, before he entered the tank, he knew conditions were such that he would not be able to achieve his object, but as a large number of people had attended for the purpose of seeing him attack the record, he swam the distance and made the best time he could in the circumstances. In view of these facts, we think it advisable not to publish a letter the tone of which is neither very kind nor very just toward Mr. Johnston.—Ed.]

DOWNPOURS ALL OVER MIDDLE WEST OF U.S.

[UNITED PRESS.]

Chicago, August 10.—Throughout the Middle West to-day rain descended and temperatures dropped from their abnormally high levels.

At most points, however, the rain came too late to do much good to the drought-parched crops.

Orange, West Virginia, August 10.—According to information reaching President Hoover, the worst effects of the drought are localized in a comparatively few areas.

There is, therefore, no cause for widespread alarm regarding the agricultural condition of the country as a whole.

A more definite idea of the situation will be forthcoming from a Department of Agriculture report which is expected to be published to-morrow morning.

St. Louis, Mo., August 10.—Traffic on the River Mississippi has practically ceased. Owing to the drought the river has shrunk to a comparatively small channel while many of its tributaries have dried up entirely.

ARMS CONCEALED IN GRAMOPHONE.

HEAVY FINE ON CHINESE FROM CANADA.

When the President Jefferson arrived in port on August 1, a Chinese passenger from Canada was arrested for smuggling arms, and as a result was produced before Mr. T. S. Whyte-Smith and Mr. H. R. Butters, sitting together, at the Kowloon Magistracy yesterday, charged with possessing one automatic pistol loaded with one round of ammunition, one Lugar pistol, five spare magazines and seven hundred rounds of ammunition.

At the outset of the hearing Mr. Lo told their Worship that his client had pleaded guilty to the charge of possession and that he would address them extenuating circumstances.

Mr. Lo then went on to say that his client was a native of Toi Shan and went to Canada some twenty years ago. Since then he had paid one visit to China about ten years ago. During the last eleven years or so he had carried on business as a restaurant proprietor in Edmonton. Defendant has a return permit to go back to Canada.

Accused's Story.

Whilst defendant was in Canada, continued Mr. Lo, he has a permit to keep an automatic pistol which was one of the two arms found in this case. The other pistol he got shortly before he left Canada. A Canadian owed accused some money, and being unable to pay it back, had offered the pistol instead.

Whilst in Canada, accused heard that Toi Shan, his native country, was infested by pirates and bandits, and being a wealthy emigrant he decided to take the arms with him for self-protection.

"I hope you will take a lenient view of the case, and impose a fine on the defendant," concluded Mr. Lo.

Sergeant Kellett intimated that the police took a serious view of the case and asked for a substantial fine.

After some discussion, Mr. Whyte-Smith said: "Mr. Butters and I have decided to fine defendant $1,000 and order the arms and ammunition and the gramophone where the arms were found to be confiscated."

EXHIBITION OF CHINESE PICTURES.

WORK OF WELL-KNOWN ARTIST.

A large variety of Chinese pictures are now on exhibition on the first floor of the Empress Hotel, near the Western Market. The exhibition opened yesterday and attracted many people until a late hour in the evening.

The majority of the pictures are the work of Mr. Cheung Kok Chor, a well-known Cantonese artist. While the pictures exclusively deal with Chinese art, there is much to interest the foreigner, who is given an insight into historical mountains and beauty spots, especially in Kiangsu, where the artist produced most of his work. Titles are appended to the pictures in English which makes it easy to follow them.

A number of beautiful waterfalls and river scenery are included in the subjects treated. There are a series of floral paintings which from the standpoint of colouring make a special appeal. Mr. Cheung has also touched on a few local subjects, one of which is the "Lady Rock" in Kowloon. Admission is free and the exhibition remains open from 11 a.m. to 10.30 p.m. including to-morrow.

LINDBERGH'S FLYING AGAIN

[UNITED PRESS.]

Hicksville, Long Island, August 9.—Col. Charles A. Lindbergh and his wife, known to millions as "Anne," flew to-day to the estate of Mr. Dwight Morrow, the father of Mrs. Lindbergh, at North Haven, Maine.

After they had made a landing, Colonel Lindbergh said that his wife had handled the controls, part of the way. It was their first long flight since the recent birth of their young son.

The baby was left at their home in Englewood, New Jersey, because of parents' fears that the change of climate might prove injurious. This explanation was construed by some as indicating that the youngest Lindbergh will soon begin to accompany his parents on local flying trips.

EASTERN NEWS IN BRIEF.

PARS FROM EVERYWHERE.

The Tientsin Customs revenue for July this year is estimated at Tls. 2,200,000. There has been very little effect of the double charges at Shanghai and other ports on the Tientsin revenue.

The Legislative Yuan, at its 164th meeting in Nanking last week, formally adopted the International Postal Convention and Agreements relating to the exchange of International Insured Mails and Insured Boxes, the exchange of Parcels and International Money Remittances. The Convention and Agreements will be immediately forwarded to the State Council for ratification.

In response to a joint petition presented by Russian and Chinese merchants in Kitaiskaya, Harbin, regarding the reduction of house rents, the Chief of the Civil Administration Bureau for the Special District of Harbin, has notified house-owners that the lowering of house rents by 15 per cent. will be expected. It is added that anyone failing to comply with the order may be compelled to do so by force.

The Free Trade Society in Osaka which was previously reported as having been making preparations to submit a written petition to the Government urging the holding of a tariff truce conference inviting Great Britain, America, India and Australia in the near future is now drafting a letter to be sent to President Hoover, requesting him to hold the Tariff Truce conference under the auspices of America, inviting the Powers interested.

With a view to economizing in national defence expenditure, the Japanese War Office is planning to reduce the terms of cavalry, and other sections of the military service uniformly to one and a half years for those who have completed the course at young men's training offices. By this means the War Office hopes to save ¥4,000,000 annually. In this connection the War Office will ask the Military System Investigation Commission to decide the general outline of reduction of military service terms.

A petition jointly submitted by the local Party, civil and military authorities for the abolition of the Kuikiang Municipal Government has been approved by the Kuikiang Provincial Government. In view of the small population of the city, being less than 100,000, which precludes it from ranking as a municipality under the new Municipal Government Law, it is felt that the Municipal Government should be immediately abolished. It is stated that administrative expenses to the extent of $50,000 annually will thereby be saved.

JAPAN'S INTEREST IN MANCHURIA.

MUST BE RECOGNIZED.

[UNITED PRESS.]

Williamstown, Mass., August 9.—Rear Admiral Arthur J. Hephurn to-day told the Institute of Politics that disarmament is unlikely unless the Powers of the world begin to manifest some trust in one another.

Efforts toward world peace, he said, are still at a stage which warrants nothing more than mere limitations, rather than any thorough-going disarmament programme.

No appreciable progress is being made, he said, except as regards field and naval armaments. Mr. Yuchiko Tsunomi of Japan, who spoke yesterday, declared to-day that Japan's economic interest must necessarily be recognized in the interests of economic security.

While past interests were largely political and strategic, he continued, Manchuria has now become a point of great commercial importance, and indications point to an ever greater economic development of this rich territory.

Total Disarmament "Impossible."

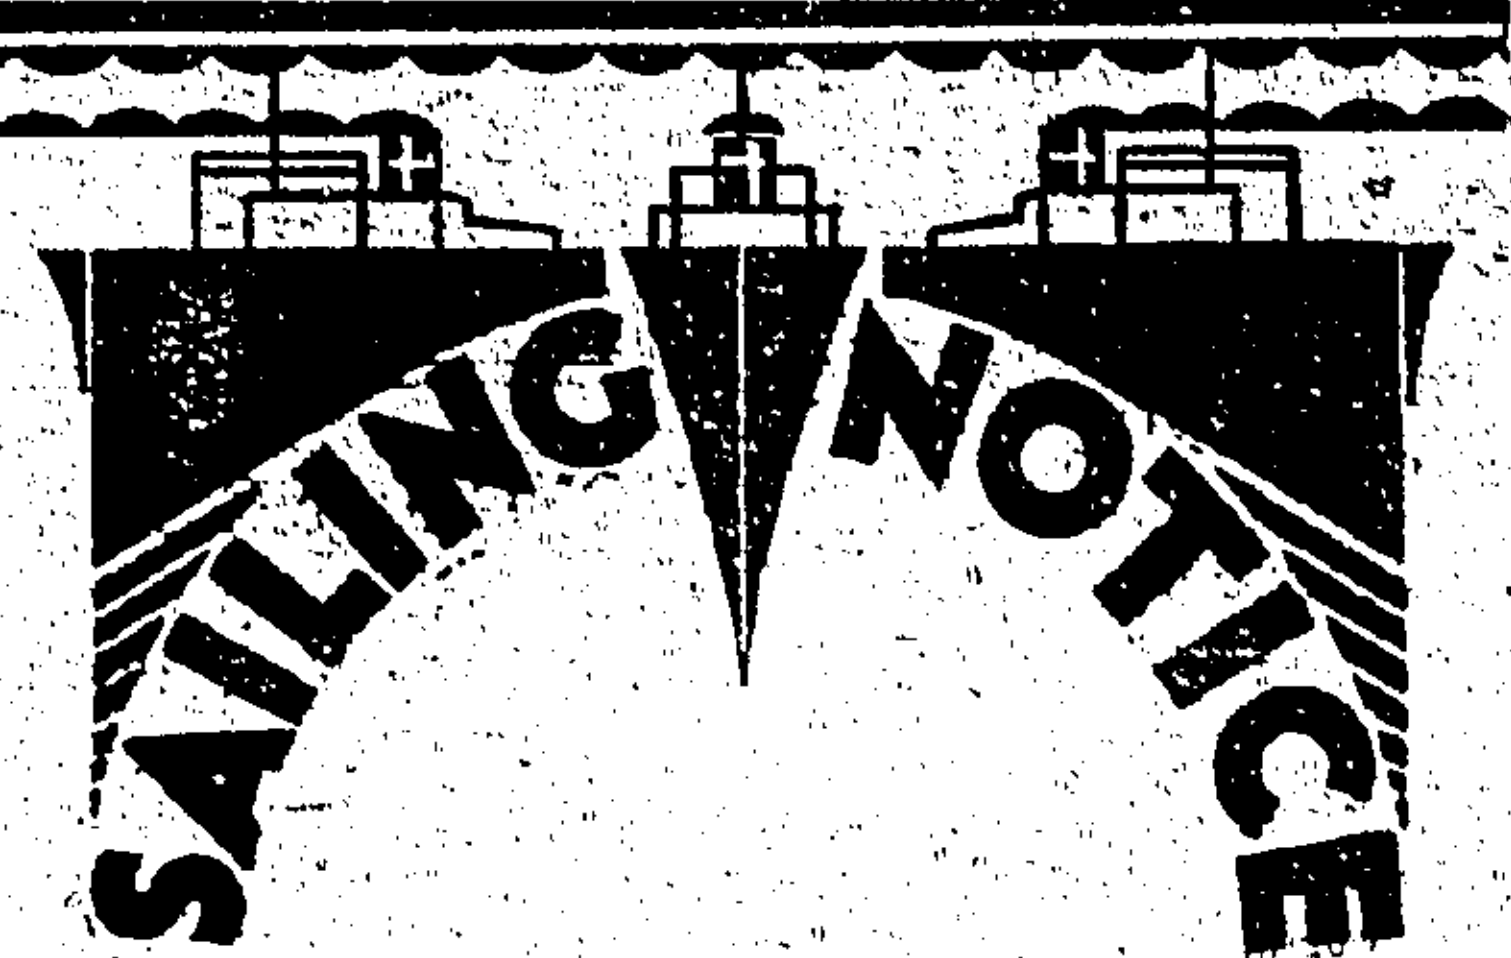

Discussing the subject of arms limitations Rear Admiral William V. Pratt declared that the next step in disarmament will be a drastic limitation of air forces which will immeasurably harm civilians.

He said that the project of total disarmament is at present impractical. The policy of power at any cost, however, he declared to be wrong.

TRIAL.WORLD'S FASTEST AIRCRAFT.

Two racing monoplanes, which are believed to be the fastest craft in the world, are being tested at the R.A.F. High Speed Base, at Felixstowe. The machines, when they have been tuned up to their maximum potentialities, will be capable, it is confidently believed, of reaching a speed of 380 miles per hour. This would be considerably in advance of the world's record. Squadron-Leader Orlebar, in his flights last autumn in the Schneider trophy machine, maintained a mean speed of 357 m.p.h. Whether the achievements may be of the monoplanes now under test, the public is not likely to be informed. The trials are being carried out under conditions of secrecy, and on inquiry at the Air Ministry, it is not intended to make any announcement regarding the speeds attained.

The aeroplanes which are the subject of the present experiments are the two Gloster-Napier monoplanes which were originally built for the last year's Schneider Trophy contest. Just before the race, trouble developed with the carburetor, and it was found impossible for the machines to compete.

Greater Horse-Power.

Since September, both of the monoplanes have been overhauled and certain modifications have been made. The trouble with the petrol feed has been eliminated, and the engines have been slightly altered to produce greater horse-power. Their original nominal rating of 1,250 h.p. has been increased to 1,275 h.p.

Alterations to the actual aeroplanes—they are somewhat smaller than the Supermarine-Roll-Royce craft which won the Trophy, and then broke the world's speed record—have resulted in a slight decrease of head resistance. It is confidently expected that when the machines have been thoroughly tested and tuned, they will be able to reach a speed of 380 miles an hour.

Flights have been made in the past few days by the first of the two racing monoplanes, which has been flown by Squadron-Leader Orlebar, holder of the world's speed record. The machine has been timed over the course at Felixstowe by the photographic timing device, and its speed has been carefully checked.

No Record Attempt.

Despite the potentialities of these monoplanes, no official attempt will be made to establish a world's record, despite the fact that Italy, France, and America are exceptionally keen on capturing the record, and are now engaged in building special racing machines to compete in 1931 for the Schneider Trophy.

AID FOR AMERICAN
FARMERS.REDUCED FREIGHT RATE
PROPOSALS APPROVED.

[UNITED PRESS.]

Washington, August 9.—The Interstate Commerce Commission today approved of proposals for reduced freight rates on feed and water as a measure to assist farmers in the drought areas.

Ohio telephone companies are arranging for permission from public utilities officials to continue their service to farmers at a third of the regular rates, lest lack of cash may cause many farmers to discontinue their telephone service.

HONG KONG SHARES.

BENJAMIN & POTTS'
WEEKLY REPORT.

Our market has been quiet on the whole, and prices have not shown much fluctuation over the week, the actual turnover for both cash and forward delivery being quite small. At the close a better feeling is in evidence and buyers of most of the favourite stocks prevail.

Banks.—Hong Kong and Shanghai Banks have received in London to £103.10 (Middle) with a small business done locally at $1.450 ex the interim dividend of 23 ($40.45) recently paid.

Marine and Fire Insurance.—Unions have formed up to $440 and probably a little more would be paid. Hong Kong Fire has appointed $400. China Fire has buyers at $70. Cantons at $945 are unchanged.

Shipping.—Hong Kong, Canton and Macao Steamboats are in demand at $24. Douglas Steamships are wanted at $28. Waterboats are unchanged at $32.

Docks, Wharves and Godowns.—Kowloon Wharves were sold again at $135 and are offering. China Providents were dealt in to some extent at $3 and $3.10. Whampoa Docks continue very flat with sellers at $38. Hongkong Wharves at $11.20 and Shanghai Docks at $11.70 can be placed at quotations.

Lands, Hotels and Buildings.—Hong Kong and Shanghai Hotels were bid up to $101, but eased off towards the close to $10.40. Realty shows a further rise with sales reported at $9.40. A further decline has occurred in Hong Kong Lands to $80. Humphreys Estates are on offer at $16. Shanghai Lands are quiet, but steady at $18.20.

Public Utilities.—Hong Kong Electric recovered in the early part of the week to $78 at which figure sales were made, but at the close buyers are only offering $77. China Lights (Old) have been negotiated at $24 after sales at $23. A slight improvement is to be noted in Hong Kong Trams which were dealt in at $18.50. "Star" Ferries are on offer at $85. Peak Trams (Old) can be placed at $121. Public Phones (Fully Paid) continue in demand at $32. The Party Paid shares have receded to $21.

Miscellaneous.—A spasmodic enquiry for Green Island Cements (Combined) raised the price early in the week to $18.10, but the market after relapsing to $17.40 closed firmer with buyers at $17.90. They are, however, firmer again with buyers at $17.90. Hong Kong Ropes have advanced to $10.90. Dairy Farms are wanted at $24.10. Canton Ice were put through at $2.10. There are enquiries for Hong Kong Government Loan at 8 per cent. Premium after sales at this rate.

Cotton Mills.—Ewos were realised again at $12 and have further buyers. Shanghai Cottons at $18.78 continue neglected.
